Shoes Are Rationed by Surprise Order

Each Person May Buy Three Pairs of Shoes Annually By New Order Made Sunday

Rationing of shoes became effective Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock under an order by Economic Stabilization Director Byrnes. The announcement came without warning to the public, and there was little chance for hoarding. However, members of rationing boards were certain that shoes would soon be on the ration list.

Sales were halted Sunday, and no store could sell shoes until Tuesday morning. Stamp 17 in the sugar and coffee ration book is used for the purchase of shoes.

Each person will be limited to three pairs of shoes per year. Many styles of shoes have been completely eliminated.

It is believed that provisions will be made to provide more shoes for children than the three pairs per year.

Shoe dealers were glad that no previous announcement was made of the rationing order in order that runs could not be made on their stocks.

Boys Advised to Stay in School as Long as Possible

"It is advisable," said a recent statement of the War Manpower Commission, "that young people have the fullest possible opportunity consistent with the war effort to complete their education. Those with special aptitudes and capacity for further training should continue their education in order to develop their maximum abilities applicable to war and post-war needs."

Youths under 18 can best help the war effort by continuing in school, the WMS said. Many of them will have to replace persons who have gone into war work, but youths should enter the labor force only with adequate safeguards for their health and welfare, present and future.

Soldier Benefits May Be Secured Family Members

1943 License Plates Are Very Small Affairs

You may now buy your 1943 license plates for your car or truck.

The 1943 plates are little dinky affairs, only 1 inch by four inches, for the purpose of conserving precias metal for the war. This little plate will be atached to the 1942 license plate so as to cover "1942" with "1943." You will not get the big bright new plates to adorn your motor vehicle as in years past. The war settled the size of the plate, but the cost is just the same.

You may buy your plates during February, but cannot attach them to the car until the first of March. All cars must bear the 1943 tags by the first of April.

Proposal Made To Release All Farmers in Army

A bill is pending in Congress to discharge all farmers from the armed services, and likewise to discharge men over 38 years of age who can secure jobs in essential industries.

Owing to the demand for farm labor, there has been a great demand to discharge all boys who formerly worked on farms. So far no plan has been adopted for such applications for discharge.

Local Selective Service Boards have not been advised as to the steps which may be taken. Many Randall county farmers have asked local members to make recommendations, but none can be made by local boards until a plan has been adopted for this purpose.

Men seeking discharge must first make application to their commanding officers regardless of whatever steps may follow.

Low Irrigation Rate Is Offered

If You Want Vegetables This Year Better Raise Them Advises Commissioner

The City of Canyon is encouraging all citizens to raise a garden this year. A very low irrigation rate has been adopted for city water in order to encourage home gardens. Commissioner S. B. Orton made the following statement yesterday:

Before this year a garden was something you could grow or let alone. Most of the time it was better to let it alone because you could buy vegetables cheaper than you could grow them.

That's not true any longer, with the government taking most of the canned vegetables and the trucks not being able to bring them in. We can either grow them or do without, and we cannot have health and do without them.

To meet this emergency the city is putting on a 10 cent a thousand gallon water rate—think of it—two fifty-gallon barrels for a penny—beginning the 25th of this month. Get a spot and grow a garden.

4-H Club Boys Study Production of the Farms

Randall County 4-H Pig Club boys met at the County Agent's office Friday afternoon to talk over production of food to help win the war.

Cash prizes were awarded to five boys in the contest for the best story on the subject of "What our farm is doing to help win the War." The first prize of $5.00 went to 12-year-old Melvin Smith on his report of food production and other activities for the Smith farm. His report contained accurate figures of food production. These figures were translated into "annual food equivalent" for a soldier and placed on the blackboard to show the boys how to translate the production of a farm into the number of soldiers that a year's production will feed for one year.

Using the Smith farm as an example it was shown that a family of Father, Mother and three "in school" boys produced in 1942 the food equivalent to feed over 25 soldiers for one year in addition to the family food requirements. The Pig Club boys were glad to have other farm boys as visitors at the meeting. Other boys, who were awarded cash prizes for stories submitted were James Bible, 2nd, $4.00; Jack Conatser, 3rd, $3.00; Richmond Hales, 4th, $2.00; and Edwin Bailey, 5th, $1.00.

The boys were interested in the new system of reporting on their projects using food production instead of the amount of money made.

Thirty-eight boys attended the meeting Friday.

State Stamps Are No Longer Needed on Documents

State stamps are no longer required in filing documents at the office of County Clerk A. B. Holt.

The state stamp law was challenged in the courts and found to be unconstitutional. State Treasurer Jesse James has recalled all stamps which were in the hands of county clerks and advised that stamps will no longer be required.

This does not affect documentary stamps which are required by the federal government.

A LABOR GOVERNMENT

Old Tack of the Amarillo News becomes amusing sometimes without an effort at being funny. He professes that he had to go all the way to Washington in order to discover that we now have a labor government in the United States.

Naturally the administration would heatedly deny that it is a labor government, but would pose only as a friend of labor. This is rather unusual, since President Roosevelt comes from the millionaire class of the nation, and is a big property owner. No other President or man in high place in this government has done so much for labor as has the President.

There is nothing wrong with a labor government, if it is conducted on a high plane, and works for the benefit of the nation as a whole. No one can object to labor having a strong position in government, since so much depends upon the output of labor in this mechanized warfare. There never has been a time when government was more dependent upon the friendly attitude of labor, and the willingness of labor to work.

There are something like 13,000,000 members of the various labor unions in the nation. This is a minority group in our national life. This minority, as important as it is to winning of the war, cannot expect that the nation should be ruled to their complete advantage.

Whenever minorities take charge of a government and rule by strikes, the danger signal is up. The downfall of France resulted in just such a situation, and unfortunately the unions of America have adopted the worst tactics of the French groups.

The only real run-in that has occurred between the administration and labor was when John L. Lewis demanded a cabinet place in exchange for the half million dollars he put of CIO's money into the campaign. This was not John L.'s money. It belonged to labor, and the donor had no right to ask for personal reward. When the President refused the reward, John L. bet his job that he could defeat the President, but fortunately lost.

The recent miners' strike was brought on because Lewis attempted to raise the dues of the miners 50% in order that he might have a big war chest to use in his political battles. He now threatens to call a national strike of miners if there is not granted an increase in miners' pay when the contract expires next month.

For months the administration has been making a feeble effort to hedge against inflation. Ceiling prices were established—but not on labor. As a result labor prices have steadily mounted, and the ceiling price regulations have become a farce. The retail store which tried to follow the ceiling price of March, 1942, would be broke today owing to the rapidly increased prices of goods at wholesale. Furthermore, the President has stood out against all of his advisers in Washington that the 40 hour law should be junked during the war. His refusal to act upon this has hiked labor costs, and consequently manufacturing costs.

It was only this week that the President agreed to extend the work week from 40 to 48 hours, but even so, time and a half is paid for all over 40 hours, this in spite of the war.

You are paying more for merchandise than you did because of wage increases. You will be called upon to buy more bonds because war materials are produced by higher wage.

In other words, labor is in the saddle in Washington, and is riding the administration hard to gain every dollar of advantage possible out of the war.

Old Tack is too close an observer not to have noted all of these, but he has not done much writing about it.

Mayor W. A. Warren is right in calling attention to the citizens of Canyon the necessity of keeping the Chamber of Commerce going during the war. While there may be limited activities which are possible for a Chamber of Commerce during the war, the fact remains that the war will not last many years, and after the war there will be need of a strong local body to carry on Chamber of Commerce work. The war has upset the thinking of most people, and their first thought is to abolish local institutions as a matter of economy. Most of this would be false economy, as community life and community activities must be kept alive regardless of the war activities. Every citizen of Canyon has an obligation toward his home town. The Chamber of Commerce is the one agency which can effectively look after all of the details of city building if supported so that it can function properly.

American motorists are up in the air over the low prices being paid for spare casings which they shipped in for war purposes. Good casings, one which had thousands of miles of life left in them, are bringing a few cents. One man is reported to have spent $9 having a casing recapped and fixed up so that he could use it for several more months. The government agency which bought the casing allowed him $1.24. The News has repeated many times during the past years that when government refuses to be fair to the governed, the citizen loses respect for those in authority. We, as citizens, must obey the law, but those in authority should enforce the law in a judicious manner. Refusal to pay just prices when citizens are forced to sell to the government is as bad as citizens seeking to skin the government by charging exhorbitant prices.

Talk about conserving manpower, we have often wondered how many million hours of manpower have been donated to various governmental agencies by citizens of the nation. In every county seat there are from three to a dozen governmental agencies on which local citizens are serving without pay. This is a strain on the manpower of the community, considering the fact that all of these men would likely be doing something useful civilian work during the jobs given to the government.

Jim Farley visited Texas last week. He predicted that Hitler would be knocked out this year and the Japs could not last the year out. Perhaps Farley is a little too optimistic over the end of the war, but all of us will agree that it cannot end too soon. Military experts are looking for Germany to fold up during next winter, but that it will take two or three more years to whip the Japs.

Thanks, Comrades of Russia, for the fine job you are doing on the Germans. In spite of what we used to think of you, as Communists, you are tops as killers of Huns and smashers of Hitlerite dreams.

The way Congress is kicking income tax plans around, we don't know whether we will owe any income tax this year, or whether Uncle Sam will owe us something on what we didn't make last year.

Dr. Syud Hossain Will Bring Brilliant Message For West About East

Dr. Syud Hossain, distinguished traveler, editor, and lecturer, will be presented by the College Lyceum Committee on Monday evening, February 15, at 8:30 o'clock in an address on the present world scene. Admission will be by blanket activity ticket or 50 cents.

Dr. Hossain has been heard often on Mutual coast-to-coast broadcasts. For two years he was the popular conductor of the Foreign Affairs Conference of the Air on the West Coast and, following the attack on Pearl Harbor, he was elected by the Mutual Broadcasting Company as the outstanding authority to give a half hour's coast-to-coast broadcast of the background of the Pacific Crisis. His extemporaneous analysis was so brilliant and clear that a record was made of the talk and it was repeated twice on Sunday and once on Monday.

Dr. Hossain knows the Moslem world, and the underlying forces that control the Far East. He recently returned from a year's world tour, during which he studied at first hand the tense international situation just before the war.

Two recent articles by Dr. Hossain that have attracted much attention are, "Why Cripps Failed in India," in Free World for May, 1942; and "India and America" in Survey Graphic for November, 1942.

He has been appointed by the War Department as lecturer and adviser at the School for Special Service at Fort Meade.

Dr. Hossain has made himself known on three continents as one of the foremost publicists in the domain of political, economic and cultural relations between the East and the West.

Phillips 66
VALENTINES for WARTIME MOTORISTS
Say a sweet word for Ethel O'Toole,
Who just set up her own car pool.
Today, when the girls set out to drive,
One lone car does the work of five.
Step up folks; send something fine
To Ethel for her Valentine!
Nobody's Valentine at all,
This greedy lug, with his brass and gall,
Wasting rubber with reckless driving;
Can he and Hitler be conniving?
'Twould serve him right, the dirty crook,
If they took away his ration book.
This selfish dame is an only daughter,
Who uses her car when she hadn't oughter.
Driving to town ten times a day;
How does this slacker get that way?
Roses are red and violets are blue;
Nix on a Valentine for you.
Esteemed by all is Willie McCann,
The affable Phillips Service Man.
To all your needs he'll gladly cater:
Battery, tires, and radiator.
Motorists bright depend on him
To keep their cars in wartime trim.

The U. S. A. rides to school ... to church ... to work ... on rubber-tired wheels. Because that rubber must be saved, because cars must last for the duration, mileage is rationed by rationing gasoline.

Give your car a Valentine by giving it the care it deserves and needs in times like these. Ask your Phillips 66 Service Man about car and tire saving when you stop at any Orange and Black 66 Shield for Phillips 66 Poly Gas, famous for fast starting pep and extra mileage . . . and Phillips 66 Motor Oil, 100% paraffin base.

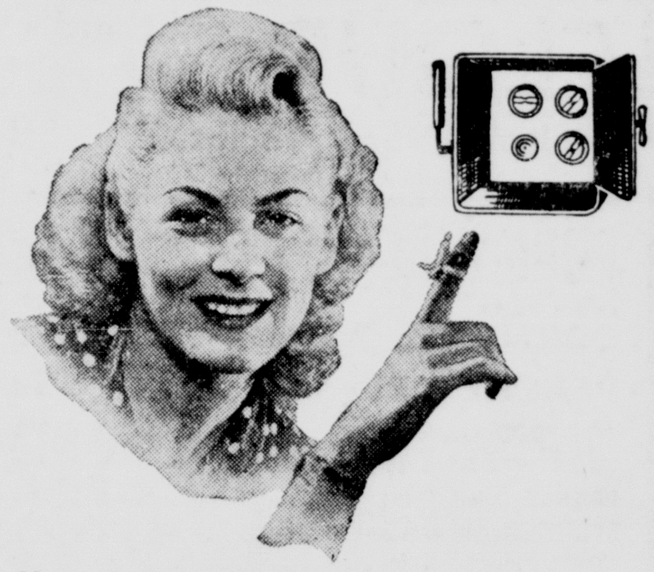
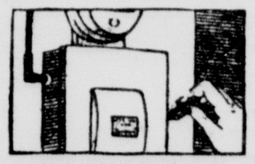
REMEMBER THIS..



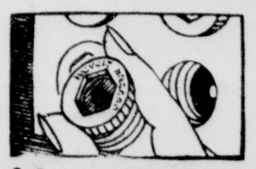
..if you're annoyed by "private blackouts"

Military blackouts are often necessary these days... but "private blackouts" aren't! You can save time and nervous strain... as well as the annoyance of an unnecessary blackout in your home by remembering two things: (1) Keep a supply of fuses... correct size... always handy. (2) Check your switch box fuses immediately if your lights go out... replace any "blown" fuses with your good ones.

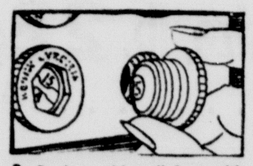
Here's How...



1. Go to the main switch at your meter box. Stand on a DRY SURFACE and turn off electricity.



2. Remove "blown" fuse, touching only its top. The fuse with the scorched spot in the "window" on top is the one to remove.



3. Replace "blown" fuse with new one, as you would a lamp bulb. Then turn on the main switch.

PARK H. D. CLUB WITH MRS. SIMON

"Do without; make it do; wear it out; make it yourself," is the clothing slogan of today as presented to the Park Home Demonstration club, by Miss Frances Wilroy, county home demonstration agent when the club met with Mrs. Herrick Simon, Thursday afternoon, February 4.

Family morale is the basic factor to the whole morale of our nation, and clothing is one of the main factors used to keep the family morale strengthened. Good care of the clothing means better and longer wear of the garments. One of the important things to remember now is that rayon loses strength when it is wet, but regains it upon drying. For that reason do not stretch, pull, wring or twist rayon. The club members brought garments to be darned and mended, and though everyone does a certain amount of mending, ideas were exchanged, and the demonstration given by Miss Wilroy was a challenge to any club member to make her clothing last longer. There were eighteen members present and two visitors. Refreshments of cake and tea was served to Mrs. John Gibbs, and Mrs. E. E. Adams, visitors.

Warren's

Buffs Win Series From New Mexico

Douglas Groom and Chat Johnson Lead Texans' Scoring

Playing with less finesse than before they left for their New York road trip, the Buffalo cagers won two games from the New Mexico University Loboes Friday and Saturday nights in their last home games of the season. The Buffs won the first game 48 to 37 and the second 45 to 38.

Douglas Groom led the scoring parade in the game Friday night, making 6 field goals and 3 charity tosses for 15 points. The Buffaloes didn't look any too impressive in their 48 to 37 victory. The Buffaloes as well as the Loboes seemed in not too good shape after extensive traveling.

Starting the scoring was Townsend of the Loboes on a foul under the basket by Ledru Jacobs, Buffalo forward who played some impressive ball. Frogge sank a field goal, giving the New Mexicans a four-point lead before the Buffaloes tallied. Douglas Groom made the first West Texas score after a minute of play had elapsed. The score was tied at 6-all after 3½ minutes when Captain Bill Stockman put his Texans ahead. The Buffaloes led the scoring for the remainder of the game.

With a bare 3-point lead when a fourth of the game had gone by, Coach Gus Miller sent in his freshman team composed of Boyce Box, Cloyce Box, Glenn Braden, Eugene Keating and Metz LaFollette. They gained one point during the remainder of the first half as the score stood 25-21.

In the second half the Buffs were missing a lot of crip shots as the Loboes opened up with a hot streak and came within one point of tying the score when five minutes had passed.

Runnerup scorer was B. McDougal of New Mexico U. with two field goals and 6 free throws for 10 points. He made 5 of the free throws in the second half on fouls committed by Trimble, Jacobs, Deacon Johnson, and Crews.

Ledru Jacobs, W. T., and Townsend of the Loboes tied for third place with 8 points each.

Trailing at the half 23 to 26 in the Saturday encounter, the Buffs came back to win the second game by a none too comfortable margin. Norman Trimble opened the locals' scoring with five points before his teammates commenced hitting the basket. The Lobo machine got started and ran up an 8 to 5 lead after the first six minutes of play.

In the second half, Chat Johnson and the other Buffaloes almost held the Lobo scoring at a standstill. Johnson snapped three baskets in a row to score 6 points in the opening three minutes of play. Only three field goals were made by the Loboes in the final period.

Scoring honors went to Chat Johnson who made 6 field goals and two free throws for 14 points. B. McDougal was next for the Loboes with 13. Close behind the two leaders were Clark "Deacon" Johnson with 11 and Ledru Jacobs with 7 points, both Buffaloes.

The Buffaloes will play the Texas Tech Red Raiders in Lubbock Friday and Saturday nights. Then they will go to Albuquerque to defend their Border Intercollegiate Conference Championship February 17-20.

Miss Virginia Vaughan was home from her school work at Chickasha, Okla., to visit at the parental W. L. Vaughan home.

College Is Given Army Approval

No Contract for Training Unit Is in Sight Now, However; Studies Made

West Texas State is one of 281 institutions approved by the War Manpower Commission to offer training for men and women under plans formulated by the Army and Navy.

The War Department tentatively designated West Texas State for the training of WAACs.

But the action is permissive and preliminary, and does not involve a contract. In fact, the Army wishes to place no fewer than 600 WAAC trainees in college units and West Texas State has not been approved for this number.

The announcement made in Washington Saturday concerned academic standards, location, and general factors—not the actual training of enlisted personnel, which must be contracted for by the Army or Navy.

The college has assembled much data on its facilities and has had communication with several federal agencies. Except for the increase in War Training Service (Navy) cadets, there has been no development for announcement.

Mathematics in Demand Now—Service Men May Take W. T. Courses

Records in the Bureau of Public Service show that 351 persons have done correspondence work in West Texas State College since September 1. Of this number, 150 have completed courses and 201 have courses now in progress. Sixty-nine men and 282 women have been enrolled.

Although enrollments are well distributed throughout all the departments which offer work by correspondence, there is unusual interest this year in mathematics.

West Texas State College is one of seventy-six colleges of the United States which have been approved by the United States Army as centers of correspondence work for men in the service. The cooperative plan which was initiated by the United States Army now applies to the United States Navy and other branches of military service.

Glenn Milner Is Stationed With Fighter Unit

Harding Field, La., Feb. 8—Second Lieutenant Glenn E. Milner, who graduated from West Texas State College in the class of 1941, has been assigned to a fighter unit at Harding Field, Baton Rouge, La., according to a recent announcement from the Public Relations Office at that field.

Lt. Milner received his pilot's wings and the bars of a Lieutenant recently upon graduation from the Army Air Forces Advanced Flying School at Spence Field, Moultrie, Georgia.

At Harding Field the ex-West Texas student will receive further training as an Army Air Force combat pilot.

Clark Presides at Meet Downstate

Prof. Wallace R. Clark has returned from a trip to Fort Worth, where he presided at a meeting of the board of the Texas Association of Music Schools, of which he is president.

The association's committee on standards met at the same time. Problems growing out of the war were studied.

Plans were made for the state meeting, which will be held in Dallas on April 10.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Francis of Kress visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stratton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Loftin and children of Borger spent Sunday at the parental J. W. Shook home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thompson returned from Dallas Saturday where they attended market.

Small Farmers May Secure Loans of Farm Security

Randall county farmers are mobilized for war production and those who can add to their output of needed supplies need not be hampered in doing so for lack of funds, according to Lillie Belle McClure, rural rehabilitation supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

"No American farmer," said Mrs. McClure, "should be hindered by lack of operating funds this year. Banks and private credit institutions are expanding their credit facilities to fit food production requirements and the federal government has ample facilities to meet the particular needs of farm and ranch producers."

The county supervisor said assistance can be given by the Farm Security Administration to those farmers who lack the required security for other loans but whose family labor and land could be put to fuller use in the war program if the funds were available.

She stated that funds are immediately available to small operators for the purchase of farming equipment, feed, seed, livestock, household needs, building repairs, for land rental, clothing, necessary medical care, sanitation facilities and many other needs.

"Farm Security loans this year," she said, "are being directed especially to any small farmers who with such financing can become qualified as essential farm producers under the war-unit rating, by adding to their livestock or poultry or increasing their production of war-rated crops."

Farm and ranch operators who cannot get adequate financing from any other source are urged by Mrs. McClure to contact her immediately at her office in the old Weather Bureau Building, 200 East 7th Avenue in Amarillo. She cautions against delay in making applications for loans because this is the year of all years when operators should have their money on hand at the moment it is needed.

Red Raiders on Buff Schedule

West Texans in Slump—Statistics Show Locals Not Aggressive Enough

Two red hot games are ahead this week for those fellow-travelers of the courts, the Buffaloes of West Texas State and the Red Raiders of Texas Tech. The games will be played in Lubbock Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 12 and 13.

The Buffs recently defeated the Raiders here, but the locals are currently in a slump, from which they must emerge to beat the Tech cagers on the latter's court. Only late recoveries permitted the tall men to beat New Mexico University here last week by scores of 48-47 and 45-38. The West Texans obviously were showing the effects of their recent eastern invasion.

Th Buffs' statistician has come forward with the idea that the Buffs are not shooting enough. Their percentages are up to the standard they seek to attain—30 per cent on field goals and 60 per cent on free throws. In fact, they are a few digits above these figures. But they have not been getting their one hundred field goal tries a game.

Charles Johnson, guard, continues to lead the scoring parade, with 188 points. Clark Johnson, his brother and a center, is pressing with 183 points, followed by Frank Stockman, captain and guard, with 118 and Ledru Jacobs, forward, with 104. Other scorers are Douglas Groom, 90; Norman Trimble 68; Jack Maddox, 36 in three games; B. Box, 18; C. Box, 12; Ray Ellefson, 12; Metz LaFollette, 11; Velton Sorgee, 10; James Crews, 6; Glynn Braden, 5; and Eugene Keating, 1.

West Texas State's cagers will be defending champions in the Border Conference title tournament in Albuquerque, N. M. on February 17-20.

Tall Buffs Are Challenged, But Cannot Oblige

A challenge from Valparaiso (Ind.) University for a game to be played at Gary was declined by the Buffs during their recent road trip. With a full trip already arranged and transportation schedule established, the team could not do otherwise.

In issuing the challenge, Valparaiso officials claimed a starting lineup averaging 6 feet 6 inches. The two Warnke brothers of the Indiana club are 6 feet 10 inches tall, according to Charles Kern, publicity director.

Sketches of Progressive Men, Civic Leaders, Amarillo

This department has been worked up as a reflection of public opinion. No man has written of himself or his business, all articles having been compiled by a Canyon News representative as he saw conditions. These men are laders in their various lines of endeavor, and the co-operation of those citizens of Amarillo who helped to make this department possible is sincerely appreciated by the publishers of the News. All material hereunder fully copyrighted and all rights to any part thereof reserved.

J. J. Currie

It is a privilege in this review of outstanding men and firms that have been a great aid to the growth and development of Amarillo and the Panhandle, to place such a man as J. J. Currie, one of the earliest settlers in the Panhandle who came here in 1889, on an equal plane with all others in his rank. In the past few men have exceeded him in contributing their time and energy to the civic improvement of Amarillo and this district.

J. J. Currie for many years recognized as one of the more progressive and prominent cattlemen of this section of the state, still retains that distinction in the admiration and respect of his wide circle of friends. His interest in and the very valuable assistance he has rendered to many projects of a civic nature reflect the principles which he always so successfully applied in his business affairs.

We of The Canyon News congratulate Mr. Currie on his record, and sincerely hope that his career will be as colorful and completely successful in the years ahead as it has been in the past.

J. E. Bowman

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Amarillo, Mr. J. E. Bowman of the Bowman Nursery, performs a real service for the people of his city and this district, and his many contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been turned to the advantage of his fellow citizens and he is always ready to assist in any enterprise which promises to advance the welfare of the community.

Mr. Bowman is deserving of praise and this small tribute is but a just recognition of the many services which he has performed in the way of civic and business activities. His reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate J. E. Bowman on his splendid record and trust that he shall continue to serve the people of Amarillo and vicinity.

ADDITIONAL AMARILLO REVIEWS ON PAGE 7

W. C. Howell

One of the more progressive business men of the city of Amarillo and one who deserves the respect and good will of every resident of the city is pleasant, likeable W. C. Howell of the Howel & Sons Feed Store, distributors of Red Anchor Feeds for livestock and poultry.

The Howell & Sons Feed Store has become an Amarillo institution and W. C. Howel is no less so because of his inseparable connection with the firm in the minds of its customers.

He has always been ready and willing to contribute his time and energy to the assistance of any plan which promises to benefit this district and the people of Amarillo may regard with particular satisfaction the many services he has performed for the community in the interest of progress and civic betterment.

We urge our readers to look to Mr. Howell as a man of whom we may be proud. His devotion to his city has been constant and his achievements well merited. His straight forward business methods are a credit to his high sense of honor and the progressive policies he has pursued in the past assure his continued success.

Wm. Spoonts

In compiling this review of progressive Amarillo business men we have endeavored to select those men who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their business, have caused the public to spot in them certain qualities over and above the average. Such a man is Mr. Wm. Spoonts of of the Caprock Dist. Co., distributors in Amarillo of Budweiser, king of bottled beer.

Mr. Spoonts' main interests have not been solely confined to his own private affairs and the conduct of his business, but have also included the development of those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of his activities.

Bill Spoonts is a man of wide experience whose exploits in the business and civic life of Amarillo and vicinity merits more than passing attention and this writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to such a man as he.

THE COW THAT DIDN'T GET MILKED

She was a Holstein. There are many like her on our farms.

But this cow was not on an American farm. She was grazing in a little pasture in Holland, native country of the Holstein, when hell broke loose. A new kind of horrible hell called a blitz.

She went crazy. She ran until her tongue hung out. She wasn't milked that morning, or that night, or the next day, or the next. Her beautiful udder spoiled.

But maybe it is just as well—Hitler and his men take all the milk. They take everything from enslaved Holland.

Remember this story as you milk your good herd. Keep on remembering it—and keep buying U. S. War Bonds—every dollar's worth that you possibly can.

Buying Bonds will he' with the war right now—and be one of the best investments you ever made. They never sell for less than you pay for them. They increase in value every year.

If held for ten years, they return $4 for every $3 invested. They can be cashed any time after sixty days if you need the money. Buy Bonds—for yourself and for your country—at your bank or post office.

Tournament Climaxes Season

Eagles Entertain Visiting Squads

Winning Teams Compete Saturday for Awards

At the District A Basketball Tournament, Canyon High will be host to probable contestants from Dumas, Friona, Hereford, Dimmitt, and W. T. High. Victor of this tournament will be eligible for competition in the regional combat.

Visiting teams will not fight in vain, for first place trophies are offered to the winners while the runner-up will also receive an award. Winning hoopsters will be presented with five silver basketballs as will the cream of the crop—the all-tournament team. Tomorrow Canyon and Dumas will play at 10:00 o'clock, Friona will meet Hereford at 11:00 o'clock, and Dimmitt will battle one of the above teams at 2:00 o'clock. All of the semi-finals will be fought tomorrow while the final competition will be completed Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

To be played in the Canyon Grade School gymnasium, the games will cost 11 cents for grade school children, 17 cents for high school students, and 28 cents for adults. "For such an important tournament the cost of each game is extremely low," said Superintendent J. B. Speer.

Referees for the matches will be Milton Morris and W. W. Nicklaus.

CONSIDER THE "FISH"

One bright noon, an innocent little freshman (identity unknown) wandered out the front door of Canyon High School. On the top step he was greeted by a cultivated (?) throng of dignified and somewhat ferocious seniors.

"Please, little 'fish,' go away and leave us to talk—and next time wipe your feet before stepping here."

So the 'fish' wandered down a couple of steps.

But that place was also occupied, by equally ferocious juniors.

"G'wan 'away, kid, and don't bother us!"

Discouraged, the little freshman wandered down several more steps.

"Get out of here, you prying spy! Stay away!"

In a real hurry, the unwanted "scrammed" from the sophomores' domain.

Finally, he reached the benches—far, far, from the dangerous steps—and gratefully stayed there among his own kind.

Note: This story is not entirely fictitious; not only does it concern the school steps, but school enterprises and activities.

It's up to the upper classmen to eliminate this feeling expressed by lower classmen of not being wanted.

After all, they're an important part of this school too.

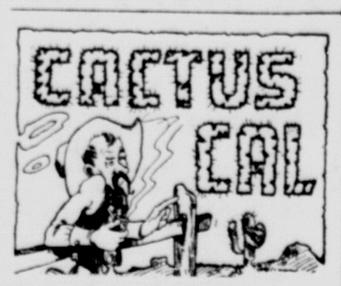
CANYON TAILORING CO.

Jury of Junior Students Proclaims Mildred Cole Guilty Beyond Doubt



To convict Miss Mildred Cole, aeronautics teacher, of being so attractive that students can't study, was the attempt of the junior class in assembly last Thursday, as they conducted a miniature court with Lindsey Taylor, junior prexy, as judge.

In this typical trial, Helen Jo Cox was the attorney for the defense, while Manus Read Foster took the offense. To the surprise of both the students and the defendant, Sheriff Wayne Wirt arrested Miss Cole and brought her before Judge Taylor, on the charges preferred by the convictees.

After much consideration of all the known facts on the part of the jury, Bob Copeland, jury foreman, declared, " Miss Cole is guilty beyond a doubt of being very attractive, but the other charges are the students' fault; I whistled too."

As a climaxing feature of this trial, the members of the court and jury sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Before the trial, Reverend C. C. Armstrong, pastor of the local Methodist Church, gave a short address on "Are You Able to Meet the Demands of the Day?"

In keeping with Valentine's Day, ol' Cal is revealing all the recent romances of Canyon High, just to stay in style.

A certain Salt Lake City gal and a boy who drives a bus to school sure have things in common, well, ping-pong anyway. What about this, Ernest Frank and Helen O'Connor?

It has finally happened: On the night of February 4, Edgar Dana Persons and Shirley Ann Newberry went to the show together. What is that gold heart doing on your shirt, Dana, just a valentine?

Yes, sir, something's brewing, but whether it means anything, I can't say. All I saw was Spence Winn winking at Rose Hugg in the fifth period study hall. Well, that's a pleasant way to study.

Flash! It has been rumored that Pauline Ruthardt and Lee Armstrong have been exchanging blushes lately. Can this be another romance?

Buds of romance have opened in the seventh grade. The two couples are Max Bellah and Frances Standley, Billye Gill and Marvin Pite. Nothing like starting early.

At the senior valentine party February 3, many funny incidents occurred which will shock any senior parent who has not heard. Mind you, I'm not tattling, but when Joe Ziegler proposes to a girl and Shirley Harrell goes bumming, it is worth telling.

Maybe I had better explain. The amusement was "Truth or Consequences," and things really happened when every question asked was bungled.

To start things, Shirley went to town asking different people, "Have you got a dime, bud?", "How are your retreads?", and "Have you ever been in love?"

Joe Ziegler surely looked funny down on his knees before Theresa Blewett asking her for her hand and if he is still limping, don't be surprised.

Guess Who

This guy is a senior lad,
A definite jitter-bug fiend,
Kinder tall, has black curly hair,
Escorted the Senior Hallowe'en Queen.

Spends his leisure time with art,
Will act in the Senior Play, too,
Takes his art at W. T. High,
If you know him, tell me WHO.

Did you guess Shirley Harrell as last week's description?

Moving Bodies Keep Students Reducing

"One finger, one thumb keep moving; one finger, one thumb, one arm keep moving." This, C. C. Clifft's reducing song, sent the members of Canyon High into peals of laughter as they went through the motions as directed by him. Although socks on the nose were received from every angle, the participants incorporated fun and laughter with the musical exercise.

All the student body took part in the various songs led by Mr. Clifft, and laughed with him as they in turn used motions for "spreading," "chestnut tree," "heart," and "knee" in "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" and "cold, "chest" and "baby" in "John Brown's Baby."

Through his bubbling personality, this district inspector gained the respect and cooperation of students in Canyon High School.

Teachers Accept Faculty Places

Unavoidable Changes Are Headache in Wartime

Since changing teachers is unavoidable during war time, Canyon High School has added Mrs. F. R. Dunsworth to its staff and Mrs. Cecil Simms to the substitute list.

A graduate from Canyon High School in 1936 and from West Texas State College in 1940, Mrs. Dunsworth, the former Loretta Cole, will teach language arts in the seventh and eighth grades.

"I enjoyed my teaching this week as everything went smoothly. This was partly due to a conference with the substitute teacher," said Mrs. Dunsworth.

Substituting until a teacher can be found to instruct the seventh and eighth grade arithmetic classes is Mrs. Simms, who reports that the energetic students are well behaved and require much work on the part of the teacher to fill their time profitably.

Farmers Receive Vital Instruction

In spite of the inconvenience caused by the fact that our Future Farmers of America must travel to West Texas High School to receive instruction in agriculture, they are learning many things essential to the successful management of a farm.

Through a series of demonstrations and lectures, they have studied the feeding of animals, the theory of co-ops, and other important things pertaining to farm management.

"We're having fun and learning a lot at the same time," said one of the students.

Dramatists Begin Play Rehearsals

Senior dramatists began work Monday night in the Canyon High School auditorium for the coming production "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works." Under the direction of Mrs. Guy B. Tabor, eleven students are participating in this rollicking comedy.

Scenes from the first act were practiced this week and the difficult stage preparations were made.

Harrell Becomes Congress Prexy

As a result of an election in the Student-Faculty Congress last week, Shirley Harrell has accepted the position of the new president, and Frankie Phillips will fill the vice-presidency. Juanita Anderson has become secretary and J. Spencer Winn, fire and air raid chief. These officers will fill vacancies left by seniors who graduated at mid-term.

According to the constitution of this Canyon High School organization, a new officer may be elected by the Congress from its members when an officer resigns.

Grade Pupils Use Activity Period

Having completed the first afghan made by grade students for the Red Cross this year, Mrs. L. M. Cousins' fourth grade has made a good start on another one.

Donating both time and yarn, the students have woven the squares for the afghan before school each morning and during the activity period.

"I think the children have done wonderful work. They have utilized every bit of spare time," said Mrs. Cousins.

Sullivan Acclaims Book Campaign

During January and February, the Victory Corps is sponsoring a Victory Book Campaign designed to collect books for the men in our armed services.

Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan, homemaking teacher and chairman of the Victory Corps, announced that students are requested to bring any books which they think will be of interest to our service men.

Those contributing to the drive will receive credit in the Victory Corps.

Students Attend War Program

Responding to an invitation extended by the Panhandle Plains Administrator's Conference officers, members of Future Homemakers of Texas Clubs over the Panhandle attended a meeting in Amarillo last Friday.

Students and sponsors from the different clubs reported their progress in the Victory Corps, victory gardening, and other war work.

Miss Josephine Pasdral, state director of the Future Homemakers of Texas talked to the group on problems arising in the organization of a Victory Corps, and explained fully the purposes and maintenance of the Corps.

Georgia Faye Holt, Ellen Sanders and Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan, sponsor of the Canyon club, attended.

Coach Milton Sanders accompanied Superintendent J. B. Speer to the meeting of administrators who considered physical fitness, refresher courses, and other topics vital to School and War programs.

Concert Features Various Groups

As an admission charge to the second Victory concert of the year, fans must buy a Bond or Stamp. The program will be held in the Canyon High School auditorium on February 19 under the supervision of Miss Mary Roberts and will feature the band, chorus, trios, and seventh and eighth grade classes.

Girls Aid War Effort

First Lieutenant James Curtis Sheppard, stationed at Williams Field, Arizona, and husband of the former Fern Walters, class of 1940, was killed Sunday. To Fern and Lieut. Sheppard's family, the Eagle's Tale extends its deepest sympathy.

Clifft Commends School System

"For your exceptional school spirit, organization, and teachers, I commend you," complimented Carl C. Clifft, district inspector of Texas schools, as he completed his annual visit to Canyon High School last Wednesday.

According to Mr. Clifft, one of the outstanding points of improvement recognized in each of the sixty district schools he inspects is the remarkable spirit displayed by students who commendably receive responsibilities without the direct force of higher officials. Each teacher is more of a councilor than an instructor.

"Last year the Canyon High School plant was not up to par, but now it has reached this standing," states the inspector. "And judging by the size and money available, its school program is of average extension.

"However, the educational average of its faculty and superintendent is far above average. This is partially reflected in the smooth working relationship between teachers and students."

Do you know what a 25 cent War Stamp will buy?

It will purchase a clip of bullets for a Garand rifle; and, in the end, its business talk from thousands of rifles may determine who holds a piece of ground.

During this year, Canyon High School students have bought $2,818.35 of Stamps and Bonds. On Pearl Harbor day alone, $1,556.25 worth was bought.

Mrs. C. E. McDonald, chairman of the committee to forward the selling of Bonds and Stamps, commented, "I think that we are going to sell more Stamps in the next few months since we will be striving for a war flag which means that 90 per cent of the students must buy Stamps and Bonds."

Students Report War Activities

Nelson and Billingsly Give Talks on Transportation

As a highlight of the ninth annual Panhandle High School Press Association conference, held Saturday afternoon with "Schools at War" as its theme, Olin E. Hinkle, professor of journalism at West Texas State College, announced the various awards among which was the recognition of Manus Read Foster as first place winner for the best sports column, and "The Eagle's Tale" scrapbook as first place winner for the Newspaper Service Award.

Mary Nell Gibson Is President

Mary Nell Gibson, a junior from Amarillo, was elected president of the P. H. S. P. A. for the coming year. Other officers are vice-president, Ann Herndon from Perryton; secretary, June Nix of Happy; and treasurer, Joyce Carr from West Texas State High.

At the first general assembly, N. F. Nelson, district manager of the Office of Defense Transportation, delivered an address on "Transportation in the War Effort." He was assisted by R. H. Billingsly, Amarillo station master of Santa Fe Railways.

Reports on "What My School and School Paper Have Been Doing to Further the War Effort" were delivered by student spokesmen and received summation from Dr. A. M. Meyer, of the Education Department of West Texas State College. Outstanding among the activities listed by these students were Junior Red Cross, scrap drive, sale of Stamps and Bonds, victory queen, Victory Corps, physical fitness program, Bond Buyers' Clubs, honor plaques for ex-student casualties, pre-induction programs and Victory concerts.

Guests Eat at Terrill Hall

"Financing School Publications," "Creating Staff Interest," and "Problems of Make-up," were the topics of the sectional meetings, led by student chairmen who conducted discussions in round-table style.

At the dinner given in Terrill Hall dining-room, Lieutenant Charles A. Mitchell, public relations officer of Amarillo Air Field, spoke on "Newspapers at War." Immediately following this, Mr. Hinkle announced the awards.

Besides claiming first place in two divisions already mentioned, "The Eagle's Tale" recognizes Johnny Harter, who placed third on his feature story and general column.

Ending the conference, representatives attended the basketball game at Burton Gymnasium where the Buffaloes played New Mexico University.

Because of transportation restrictions, the number of students allowed to attend from each school was limited. Therefore this year's enrollment of sixty-two was quite small compared to the 250 who attended last year.

Sketches of Progressive Men & Civic Leaders of Amarillo

This department has been worked up as a reflection of public opinion. No man has written of himself or his business, all articles having been compiled by a Canyon News representative as he saw conditions. These men are laders in their various lines of endeavor, and the co-operation of those citizens of Amarillo who helped to make this department possible is sincerely appreciated by the publishers of the News. All material hereunder fully copyrighted and all rights to any part thereof reserved.

Mrs. C. C. Cunningham

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not the people who take a progressive part in the civic and business affairs of their city are the same ones who are preeminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. Such a woman is Mrs. C. C. Cunningham of the Cunningham Floral Co., and to whom we take this occasion to pay a deserved tribute.

Mrs. Cunningham has proved very ably that she is a florist of unusual ability for it largely due to her sound and practical ideas that her flower shop and floral service holds its high position in the opinion of its many patrons. She has made her business a "hobby" with the result that she is today one of the most popular florists in Amarillo giving to her patrons an excellence of artistic service seldom equaled.

It is true also that Mrs. C. C. Cunningham has done her share toward community improvement, and has given freely of her time and energy to the promotion of those enterprises which have benefitted the city at large. We are glad to voice our praise of a woman who is successful in her own business and who also has time to give to community advancement.

H. A. Shaw

Leadership in business may be a gift, but with that instinct must also go a lot of hard work and conscientious application. Mr. H. A. Shaw of the Blackburn-Shaw Funeral Home, is a natural born leader, yet the thorough knowledge of the details of his business which he possesses, can only be the result of consistent and persistent hard work.

It is a pleasure to meet a man like Mr. Shaw. He is courteous, of course, but more than that he is an alert keen, sensitive personality with an intuitive understanding of the feelings and desires of others. These worth-while attributes are reflected in the smooth running efficiency of the organization he heads. Our admiration for the achievements of this man, for his unassuming nature; his matter of fact approach to delicate problems that would appear difficult to many having less understanding, is so sincere and so firmly fixed that we are prompted to share it with our readers.

H. A. Shaw and the staff of the Blackburn-Shaw Funeral Home are to be complimented for the deeply sympathetic understanding displayed in the handling of the affairs of their patrons.

M. J. Chisholm

It is fitting in this review of progressive Amarillo business leaders that we acquaint our readers with the man to be credited with having maintained the Oliver Farm Equipment Co., in the enviable position it holds in the rural life of this district. That personality is Mr. M. J. Chisholm whose genius for organizing and for converting new ideas into actual deeds has played a vital role in the distinctive reputation which the Oliver Farm Equipment Co., which is represented in this district by Mr. Albert Byars, now enjoys throughout the Panhandle.

Mr. Chisholm has found time in addition to his business activities to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business and in promotion of the general welfare of the community. We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him and to say this district owes much to the many benefits which M. J. Chisholm and his company have rendered to the people.

C. A. Botts

Civic pride is one of those things that go hand in hand with success; because a man must have been successful to fully appreciate the advantages that were offered him by the community in which he lives.

Mr. C. A. Botts of the Botts Display Service, is one of those business men of Amarillo who has shown his appreciation for his success by his attention to all civic matters. His willingness to become a cog in the wheel of community progress when united effort was needed to put over some movement or project for the good of the city, has always been taken for granted.

Mr. Botts' quiet assumption of responsibility, not only in connection with his own business but in regard to civic matters as well has very often lent a feeling of confidence to others interested in the same movement.

It is worthy of comment that such men as C. A. Botts derive a genuine pleasure from their participation in the business and civic activities of Amarillo. In complimenting him upon his leading position in the community we do no more than express the admiration and respect of his many friends.

W. B. Beasley

It is because of the unfailing optimism and faith which he so consistently displays toward the future of Amarillo and vicinity that we are prompted to call particular attention of our readers to the fine service which W. B. Beasley of the W. B. Beasley Alarm System performs in the successful conduct of his business. He is entitled to our praise and a brief tribute in this review of progressive Amarillo business men.

Mr. Beasley is a resourceful and aggressive personality, whose progressive policies of business administration have earned for him a widespread reputation as an executive of more than average ability. And his apparent willingness to devote some of that ability to the promotion of civic activities further enhance his value of the city.

The W. B. Beasley Alarm System reflecting as it does the executive ability of this man, has a recognized popularity among the firms they serve. We are glad to give W. B. Beasley the credit he so well deserves for his achievements, and to wish for him a continued successful career as one of Amarillo's more progressive business men.

D. H. "Bud" Dolcater

Mr. D. H. Dolcater of Dolcater's Saddle Shop, is that substantial type of citizen, who because of the nature of his business, is widely known and has many friends thruout the Panhandle. He has in the past and no doubt will continue in the future to give more than his share of time and energy for the welfare of others than himself.

Bud Dolcater is the type of person who makes friends, and friendships once formed by him are never broken by an unfriendly act on his part, and he spares no effort that his services to the people of Amarillo and vicinity shall be commendable.

Mr. Dolcater has never been known to inject himself into a situation for the mere purpose of gaining publicity. However, he proceeds in a calm unostententious manner, and accomplishes his objectives with a quiet dignity.

In our opinion Bud Dolcater is a good example of the more progressive type of business man who has aided in the growth and development of Amarillo and the Panhandle.

D. I. Barnett

Mr. D. I. Barnett of the Barnett Grain Company, is one of those quiet unassuming, yet progressive business men who has consistently forged ahead in his business. And he has also put his shoulder to the wheels of civic progress whenever his help was needed in furthering civic enterprise which showed definite promise of being beneficial to the welfare of the people.

D. I. Barnett was never a man who was given to wishful thinking. His methods are those of direct action, and whether the problem at hand is one concerning his own business or that of a civic nature he attacks it with optimism and vigorous enthusiasm. Add to this his acknowledged business ability and keen sense of values and it is easily understood why he is almost invariably successful in business or civic activities.

We feel it is our duty to call the attention of our readers to these worthwhile characteristics of Mr. Barnett and to pay him a deserved tribute for his straight forward business methods and for the unselfish interest he has shown in public welfare.

Harvey Southworth

In making this review of progressive Amarillo business men it is fitting that we include some of those men, who have by their progressiveness definitely established themselves in the business and civic activities of the city.

Such a personality is Harvey Southworth of the Southworth Motor Co., and who is also the proprietor of the Amarillo Safety Lane, who also deserves an additional word of praise for being more than just a successful business man; he is a consistent and enthusiastic booster of the home community and in his way has done much to advertise the city.

Mr. Southworth has pursued the progressive policy of stepping up his business ahead of the times, thus setting a pace for which he has earned the reputation for being a gogetter who does not sit back and wait for business to come to him.

We are glad to pay this tribute to Harvey Southworth and to point out to our readers that his magnetic personality and enterprising methods are largely responsible for the standing of the Southworth Motor Co., and the Amarillo Safety Lane, in this district.

John Weeks

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability and optimism to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement the man we have in mind is Mr. John Weeks, who, not so long ago, took over the operation and management of the Cotton Insulating Co. in Amarillo. His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the future prosperity of Amarillo and the Panhandle are characteristics which we appreciate in a business leader.

Mr. Weeks has already made a large circle of personal friends as well as business associates in the conduct of his business. He has begun to take an interest in community activities and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is men like John Weeks who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs and their willingness to contribute to the public good, are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief tribute.

V. M. Rippey

Mr. V. M. Rippey of the City Sign Co., has a well earned reputation for progressiveness, because he has consistently forged ahead in business never letting up in his efforts to make the service his company renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made the City Sign Company outstanding in their field, a fact that is well known to the public.

But Mr. Rippey has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting all of the time he could spare to the general welfare, not only of his own city, but of this entire district as well.

It is such men as he who are both successful in business and appreciative of their civic obligations, that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving V. M. Rippey the credit for his accomplishments which his friends and associates have so long accorded him.

W. L. Brummett

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive business and civic leaders who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of Amarillo and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it enjoys at the present. One of these men to which we wish to direct attention is Mr. W. L. Brummett of the B. & M. Auto Sales and the B. & M. Tractor Equipment Co., a business man who has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward. He is a man whose competitors respect as much as do all others with whom he comes in contact.

Lester Brummett is at all times conscious of his civic responsibilities and may be depended upon to meet in every detail the many opportunities which present themselves to be of service to the city. Mr. Brummett's record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to the city, and this district is an established fact and we hasten to give him the credit which is his just due.

Sam Arnett

We desire in this Amarillo review to call the attention of our readers to the leading position which Sam Arnett has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been the manager of the Capitol Hotel in Amarillo he has made many personal friends as well as having earned the goodwill of his associates for the straight forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Arnett has worked hard to deserve the confidence which the people of the community have in him and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way that high standard which he has set for himself.

He has shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of the city of Amarillo and is always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. Sam Arnett deserves our heartiest congratulations on the splendid record he has already established and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

A life without love in it is like a heap of ashes upon a deserted hearth—with the fire dead, the laughter stilled, and the light extinguished.—Frank P. Tebbetts.

Mrs. Iweta Scales

To be a consistent and persistent booster of the home community very often takes courage and optimism. It is because of her unfailing faith in the future of Amarillo and her unfagging efforts to promote its development that Mrs. Iweta Scales of the Aviatrix Club, is selected now for this brief review.

Mrs. Scales has proved very ably that she is a night club operator of unusual ability, for it is largely due to her ideals of service coupled with a determination to serve only the best that the Aviatrix Club holds its high position in the public's favor.

She is a woman of keen business judgment, whose ideas have been the inspiration of many who know her. Her personality and energy in directing the operation of the Aviatrix Club are important factors in its outstanding success.

We are glad to pay this deserving tribute to Iweta Scales and to point out to our readers that hers is the guiding influence behind the splendid service and delicious foods to be had at the Aviatrix Club in Amarillo.

Mrs. S. L. Martin

The progress of any community hinges to a great extent upon the activities of the more progressive men and women in the world of business. This is as true in this locality as in any other sector and local readers are thus to be congratulated for their part in the general advancement of the area's status. One of the more progressive hotel managers in this section is Mrs. S. L. Martin, who is widely known and universally liked.

Few people have so clearly shown the success possible through the tireless effort and fine contact with the public, and she fully deserves that success for which she has worked so hard.

The success of Mrs. Martin illustrates the merits of ability grounded in experience and coupled with added asset of a pleasing and sincere personality. The Blackstone Hotel of which she is the proprietor and manager, is a recognized asset to the business life of Amarillo. We compliment Mrs. S. L. Martin for the successful management of her hotel and hope she will have many more years of continued success.

John R. Durrett

Agricultural development has always been justly regarded as the backbone of any State or Nation. It always precedes the formation of towns and cities and the industrial growth and development which follows.

The noteworthy agricultural expansion that has attended the growth and progress of the Panhandle is largely due to those early pioneers who had the vision to realize the possibilities of the Panhandle. And Mr. John R. Durrett, who for a quarter of a century has been farming in this part of Texas and is one of the largest wheat growers in the State, has played an important part in making wheat growing a major industry in this district.

John Durrett has also done his bit when it comes to helping out on civic activities. But his main interests have always been devoted to the development and improvement of the agricultural possibilities of this section of the state. He has done much along these lines—yet has been content to take his reward in the knowledge of a work well done and the respect and goodwill of his many friends. However, we feel that this brief public tribute is timely and deserving.

C. F. Moore

Mr. C. F. Moore of the Panhandle Specialty Co., and the Amarillo Cigarette Service, is one of those men who has always done his bit to maintain the prestige of the city of Amarillo as the leading metropolis of the Panhandle. He has always worked for the development of the city and his many services are worthy of sincere appreciation.

C. F. Moore has proved himself worthy of extended mention and these few words are not really adequate recognition of the many services he has performed in the promotion of public welfare. His well-earned success as a business man is easily understood knowing as the people do his widespread reputation for the honesty which characterizes all of his business dealings.

Mr. Moore is completely aware of his civic responsibilities and he is wide awake to the many opportunities for service. He's always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. We compliment C. F. Moore on his accomplishments and wish for him continued success.

B. I. Barfield

Due to the efforts of a group of wide-awake business and professional men the city of Amarillo has attained a dominant position in the commercial life of this section of the state. One of the men who has justly earned credit for being a prominent member of that group is Mr. B. I. Barfield of the Barfield Lumber Company.

It is because of the successful operation of such businesses as his that the city of Amarillo has earned the reputation for being one of the more progressive cities in this district.

B. I. Barfield is a man who has been conspicuously successful in business in spite of the fact that he has repeatedly neglected his own affairs to devote a part of his time and efforts to the successful promotion of some civic project.

This writer considers it a privilege to mention Mr. Barfield in our Amarillo review and to publicly give him credit for his contributions to the general welfare not only of his own city, but of this entire district as well.

Pearl Damron

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. Amarillo has its share of these civic minded people and one who is deserving of recognition is friendly, likeable Pearl Damron of the B. & M. Cleaners and Dyers. Her pleasing personality coupled with her ideals of service have been major factors in maintaining the B. & M. Cleaners and Dyers in a prominent position in the business life of the city. Mrs. Damron has not only in her business activities but also in her attention to civic duty assumed a leading position in community affairs.

She has always been ready and willing to contribute her time and energy to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole. She has often sacrificed her personal interests to be of assistance to the city and such people are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Pearl Damron and predict that the future will bring her even greater success.

H. E. Boggs

In every community there are a number of business and professional men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Such a man is Mr. H. E. Boggs of the Morlane Co.

Mr. Boggs' leadership in business is recognized throughout this entire district. His furtherance of civic activities and his support of those organizations and associations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress, is well known to his immediate associates.

He is equally well liked and respected by his employees, his business associates and his intimate friends. In short he is the type of man who is loyal to his community, he is thankful for his success in business and has shown his appreciation by his contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate H. E. Boggs for being a good citizen, a booster of his home community and a benefactor of his fellowmen.

E. P. and L. T. Elmer

Amarillo owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city and who have helped to make it the business center of the Panhandle. In mentioning some of these men it is only fair to include E. P. and L. T. Elmer of the Elmer Auto Supply.

They deserve a great deal of credit for their success in business and civic activities. Their main interests have always been devoted to the welfare and building up of a greater Amarillo. The value of such men to the community cannot be overestimated when taking into consideration the many things they have accomplished that have been such an asset to their city and this district.

E. P. and L. T. Elmer are wholly deserving of our sincere praise, and these few words of commendation are but a just recognition for the many activities they have conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community. The honest and successful conduct of their business affairs is but a reflection of their character. We trust they shall continue to serve Amarillo and vicinity for many years.

Had we never loved sae kindly,
Had we never loved sae blindly!
Never met—or never parted,
We had ne'er been broken-hearted.
—Robert Burns.

It is by affliction chiefly that the heart of man is purified, and that the thoughts are fixed on a better state.—Samuel Johnson.

J. H. "Sam" Bright

The true value of a citizen is not guaged by his personal success but rather by the manner in which he shares that success by his contribution to the community in which he lives. A city grows and flourishes according to the number of public spirited men and women who compose its population.

Sam Bright of Bright's Studio, is one of those men who has given much toward the development of Amarillo. He has turned his personal success in the business field to the advantage of the people as a whole, and has accomplished much toward making his city a better place in which to live.

Mr. Bright's thorough knowledge of the many technical phases of photography, coupled with his artistic ability has raised him to a position of leadership in his field of activities and has gained for him recognition as one of the city's more progressive business men. We compliment Sam Bright in this Amarillo review and wish to offer him this small evidence of our esteem.

C. W. Pfannkuch

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Amarillo those business leaders who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are therefore glad to pay tribute to C. W. Pfannkuch of the Electric Motor Service & Supply Co., and the Amarillo Brake Co., for he is becoming a well-known figure in the business life of the city. His persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued prosperity of the people of Amarillo and vicinity are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

Mr. Pfannkuch has always shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement, and has contributed repeatedly of his time and energy to the welfare of his city. We believe that this type of business leader is entitled to our sincere praise both because he has achieved success in his private affairs and because he is willing to contribute to the public good.

Mack Forrester

Business leaders, as a general rule, show their appreciation for their success by their often repeated demonstrations of civic pride. This is a fortunate fact otherwise a city would be lacking in that progressive element which advocates and develops various projects of a civic nature which are indicative of a progressive community.

Mack Forrester of the Forrester Machinery Co., has never failed to lend a hand when it came his turn to help on some worthy project for the general betterment of the city of Amarillo and the territory they serve.

Mr. Forrester takes a genuine pleasure in this method of showing his appreciation for his success, and in so doing recognizes his civic responsibilities to the home community.

It is such men as Mack Forrester who become acknowledged leaders in business and community activities and we compliment him for having attained that position in his city.

Everything which is out of our power to amend becomes more supportable by patience.

Faith has to do with things that are not seen, and hope with things that are not in hand.

Benson & Benson

There are many men in their chosen fields who are prominent, but who will not permit much to be said about their achievements. It is however, public property every time a man reaches a position in any community where he is generally recognized as a leader in his line. The doctors R. J. and Frances R. Benson, leading optometrists of Amarillo, have always done their work effectively, even though it has been accomplished in an unobstrusive manner. And it is our privilege to include them in this Amarillo review.

Both Dr. R. J. and Dr. Frances Benson, even though they may be otherwise occupied, always manage somehow or other to do their bit in any movement calculated to benefit the community. Their modesty, however, will not permit them to say the things about themselves which are said by their friends, who would also tell you that their professional conduct is a credit to their high sense of honor. They are people who deserve more credit than accorded them here.

L. J. Creekmore

Mr. L. J. Creekmore of the Creekmore Implement Co., has won the universal commendation of the people of Amarillo and our community for the progressive manner in which he has kept his company in the forefront of the business and rural life of this district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

L. J. Creekmore is not the kind of a man who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself either in business or civic matters. Yet his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgment whose opinion and advice is sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Mr. Creekmore on the successful operation of the Creekmore Implement Company, also for his constructive advice and help in those civic activities in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom many are proud to call a friend.

Carl C. Cox

In paying tribute to some of the more progressive business and professional men of Amarillo, we would be remiss in our duty were we to fail to include the name of Carl C. Cox, well-known consulting engineer.

Mr. Cox is a man who has contributed much to the welfare of Amarillo and the community for many miles around.

His civic spirit is evidenced by the many services he has performed in the interest of the people as a whole. No worthwhile enterprise which promises to benefit the community escapes his attention.

Carl Cox is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends admire and respect in him those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feeling. His professional conduct is a credit to his high sense of honor. A community is fortunate to number among its citizens a man of this type. We congratulate Carl C. Cox on his splendid record and trust he shall continue to assist us for many years to come.

Industrial Safety Subject of Bill Smith at Rotary

W. L. (Bill) Smith was in charge of the Rotary Club program, discussing Industrial Safety.

The foundation of our government is based upon Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, stated the speaker. We take a lot for granted until someone, either from without or within tries to takes these privileges away from us. The growth of industry is one of the menaces of life and the home.

Accidents are usually caused by one of two things, lack of knowledge or carelessness. In the early days of industry there were few protections and accidents were usually very severe in nature. Today there are protective guards on all machines, and workers are taught to not take a chance.

In 1912 the National Safety Council was formed. Plants were checked to eliminate dangers; safety engineers started to study ways of preventing accidents; educational programs were started for plant management.

Today the Council is divided into sections, and related industries are joined for constant study. Workmen are required to report all accidents, and constant checks are made in order to eliminate unsafe conditions and unsafe tools.

The speaker related experiences in his own company of accidents which might have been avoided.

First Aid is one of the training courses given. Last year in Canyon 120 persons took First Aid courses; 30 took the advanced training; today seven are qualified to teach First Aid.

In most cases of accidents, people are warned not to become hasty. In case of an accident, do not dump the victim in a car and rush to a hospital. He has a better chance carefully stretched out on the ground, covered up, and wait for someone who knows how to handle the case. Bleeding, poison and asphyxiation are the only cases in which speed is required in handling accident victims.
